THE 'LORD'S PRAYER."

Rev. J. J. Haley Points Out Its Conprehensive Beauties.

Rev. J.J. Haley preached a sermon of nusual power and significance at the event? Street Christian Church on sundy motions, one that profound impression upon the large audienc.

The introduction of this sermon dealt with the literary, ethical and religious sigrificance of the Lord's Prayer. The following is a brief synopsis of the serman—First, it is an ideal prayer in hevity and simplicity. Of the sixty-five yords of which it is composed, fifty-one remonosyllables, eleven have two syllables, and only three have more than two syllables—an ocean of spirituality in a few drops of words. It is also ideal in its comprehensiveness; nothing in the whole range of petition; nothing in the catalogue of human wants, that is not embraced in it.

Second, it contains an ideal creed, A model creed must be brief, simple, spiritual, catholic, comprehensive, and deal satisfactorily, at least in outline, with the following points, viz.—concerning the character of God; concerning the will of God; concerning the providence of God; concerning the providence of God; concerning the forgiveness of God; concerning the salvation of God, or deliverance from the cvil forces in the world through desire. Observe how the Lord's Prayer, in contrast to the ordinary creed, deals with these points:

First, concerning the character of God;

contrast to the ordinary creed, usual with these points.

First, concerning the character of God,
"Our Father, who art in heaven."

Second, concerning the worship of God,
"Hallowed be Thy name."

Third, concerning the kingdom of God,
"Thy kingdom come."

Fourth, concerning the will of God,
"Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

"Fifth, concerning the providence of God, "Give us this day our daily bread."

Sixth, concerning the forgiveness of sins, "Forgive us our sins as we forgive hose who sin against us."

Seventh, concerning salvation, or the

Mrs. Mary Gregovich, of Philipsburg, Hontana, under date of Nov. 26, 1899, writes: "I had typhold fever this summer, consequently was losing my hair terribly, and my head in places was perfectly bald. Newbro's Herpleide had just come into use in Philipsburg, and the doctor strongly recommended it to me. After three or four applications my hair stopped falling out, and is coming in each nutle thick. I used to be troubled greatly with dandruff, of which I am now quite cured." divine deliverance, "Lead us not into tempitation, but deliver us from evil." In the third place, the Lord's Prayer is the literary expression of an ideal character. It contains seven spirits:

The fillal spirit, "Our Father."
The reverential spirit, "Hallowed be The missionary spirit, "Thy kingdom

The obedient spirit, "Thy will be done The obedient spirit, "Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

The trustful spirit, "Give us this day our daily bread."

The fergiving spirit, "Forgive us as we forgive."

The spirit of holiness, "Lead us not into

The forgiving spirit, "Forgive us as we forgive."

The spirit of holiness, "Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil."

Incarnate these seven spirits in a human personality and you have Jesus Christ-an ideal character.

It would be difficult to reproduce the eloquence of the sermon as it was delivered, but it is seldom that one is delivered containing more beautiful expressions and at the same time feeding the mind and the heart with more substantial and sublime traths.

twenty-four hours in the public view, to be awakened with the beginning of the performance to-night.

This is the beginning of a hypnotic experiment which will, if successful, prove of interest to scientists everywhere.

Mr. Knowles sent invitations to a large number of physicians and surgeons to be recent at his exhibition last night. number of physicians and surgeons to be present at his exhibition last night. He now asks that four of the best known physicians of the city join him in the experiment this afternoon. He makes this proposition:

Back in front of the Academy Mr. Phillips told the waiting crowd that the feat was the most wonderful he had ever seen, and that there had been no way of the hypnotist knowing where they had hidden the keys.

There was a large audience at the Academy last night, when some remarkable hypnotic suggestions were carried out. In the entertainment there is a great deal of the amusement feature, and the house was kept in a roar. The show is at the Academy all the week, with a matinee to-morrow and Saturday.
